

British Columbia Region

Percentage of the population below after-tax low-income measure<sup>1</sup> in 2010 by 2011 census subdivision (CSD)

1. For a one-person household, the after-tax low-income measure (LIM-AT) is $19,460. For larger households, this amount is adjusted upward, multiplying by the square root of household size.

Source: Statistics Canada, 2011 National Household Survey, Geography Division, 2013.